

CONSTITUTION OF THE _____ GROUP

MISSION: The _____ is an interdisciplinary discussion group at the CUNY Graduate Center that invites students and faculty from all departments to share interests, ideas, and information about _____. Our primary purpose is to foster an intellectual and social community of scholars that encourages interactions across disciplines and between faculty and students.

EVENTS: The groups' monthly meetings feature _____ to address various aspects of _____.

In addition to these meetings we also hope to organize _____.

Each event also has a social component, since these events offer an opportunity for those working in various disciplines to come together, network and consider working together in the future.

MEMBERSHIP: We are open to all Graduate Center students and welcome participation from other CUNY faculty and students, as well as those from other institutions.

We maintain a listerv of over 80 members; our active participants have included students in English, Comparative Literature, French, History, Philosophy, and Theatre.

Co-Chairs: Traditionally, every two years, two students who are either selected or who volunteer have run the group. There are no formal elections.

The Co-Chairs share the responsibilities of scheduling and running weekly meetings, organizing events, and applying for funding.
