

CONSTITUTION OF THE _____

MISSION: The _____ is an interdisciplinary discussion group at the CUNY Graduate Center that invites students and faculty from all departments to share interests, ideas, and information about _____. Our primary purpose is to foster an intellectual and social community of scholars that encourages interactions across disciplines and between faculty and students.

EVENTS: The groups' monthly meetings feature _____ to address various aspects of _____.

In addition to these meetings we also hope to organize _____.

Each event also has a social component, since these events offer an opportunity for those working in various disciplines to come together, network and consider working together in the future.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership shall be open to any Graduate Center students and we welcome participation from other CUNY faculty and students, as well as those from other institutions.

_____ shall have at least twenty (20) members, who are matriculated students at the Graduate School & University Center of the City University of New York.

Voting membership shall be restricted to matriculated students at the Graduate School & University Center of the City University of New York.

Non-voting membership will be extended to any of the following classes of member or any combination of the following classes of members:

- alumni of the Graduate School & University Center of the City University of New York;
- matriculated graduate students at all colleges of the City University of New York;
- non-matriculated graduate students at all colleges of the City University of New York;
- matriculated undergraduate students at all colleges of the City University of New York;
- members of the faculty of all colleges of the City University of New York;
- members of the staff with faculty status at all colleges of the City University of New York;
- members of the staff at all colleges of the City University of New York.

Co-Chairs: Every academic year, elections will be held for no more than 2 officer positions. Voting members may nominate themselves or other voting members. In addition to functioning as the official liaisons to the Doctoral Students' Council Co-Chair for Student Affairs, Co-Chairs share the following responsibilities:

- maintaining the group's property;
- scheduling and running meetings, organizing events, and applying for funding;
- notifying the Co Chair of Student Affairs of group status changes;
- submitting an activity report and the most recent version of the constitution, and membership information to the Co-Chair for Student Affairs at the end of each semester.